

SEEKING DYNAMIC EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Are you an experienced Executive Director seeking a fun and artistic outlet for your talents? Well. . . . Consider this! The Sonoran Arts League in Cave Creek, AZ is on the hunt for a dynamic ED to join our organization.

We are a member-driven 501(c)(3) dedicated to 2-D and 3-D art, art education, and improving our community through art. Our ED must share our vision in addition to having robust operational, fiduciary and fundraising skills. Our ED will support the Board of Directors; buoy our many programs, teams, and committees; and work to develop and strengthen our donor and volunteer base. While applying your experience and knowledge to our organization, you will enjoy the opportunity to meet and work with over 600 artists that comprise the prestigious Sonoran Arts League.

We prefer that you have non-profit experience; a background in the arts is helpful. You should be a self-starter, able to multi-task and set priorities and be proficient in QuickBooks, program management, and fundraising (beyond grant writing). Your strong internet, social media and computer skills are critical. Additionally, you will be expected to maintain the financial security of our organization and possess a robust working knowledge of non-profit activity with the ability to connect with our diverse array of artists, instructors, patrons, donors and other local non-profit organizations.

There is one admin staff reporting to this position; as such, people management skills are essential. Finally, a finger-print card and background check will be required prior to an offer.

Our starting salary range is $60,000 to $80,000 per year depending on experience. Moving costs will not be reimbursed.

If you feel you are a great fit for our organization, please submit your resume. Thank you for your interest in supporting the Arts and the Sonoran Arts League.
