

Supply List:

You can work on canvas, or wood, or watercolor paper that has been covered with gesso.

Fluid acrylics. Golden is a great brand and you can buy the one ounce containers, but Blick also has fluid acrylics that are good and cheaper. Make sure they are not opaque.

If you choose a warm palette these colors work best (purchase only what you like):
You can also use a cool palette, but the blues and purples aren't as transparent

Indian Yellow

Permanent Red Oxide

Fluorescent Yellow

Florescent Orange

Pyro Orange

Hansa Yellow

Nickel Azo Yellow

Nickel Azo Gold

Trans Oxide Red

Transparent Red Iron Oxide

Quinocrodone Magenta

Any of the quinacridones, any of the Pthalos

White and black tube paints

Acrylic glazing medium or gloss medium

Optional are acrylic paint pens

Foam brushes in various sizes

Stencils if you have them (I'll bring some)

An old bath towel

Paper towels

Water container